

Code of Conduct

To create a safe and entertaining environment during the 2019 Cavendish Beach Music Festival presented by Bell we urge people to:

- Respect others, property, and your reputation.
- Have a buddy system. Stay safe while helping others do the same.
- Do not have open liquor. You know you're not supposed to have it in public places.
- Do not provide liquor to a minor. Infringement on this policy will result in immediate removal from festival for the entire weekend. Additional charges may apply.
- If something goes wrong contact the RCMP or security on site, they are there to help.
- If you have consumed alcohol or drugs, do not drive a car - that's just foolish.
- Cannabis and/or other drugs are not permitted to be brought into the Cavendish Beach Music Festival, without proper prescription.
- Use proper conduct in Campgrounds and public places.
- You must have your ID on you at all times.

If you see any illegal act, do not ignore it, report it to the RCMP. If you are caught breaking any of our rules or the law, you will be evicted without refund. We aren't trying to scare you, we want you to have a great weekend, but we do want to let you know the consequences of some actions.

Liquor Control Act

39. (1) No person shall consume liquor in a public place except as provided by this Act or the regulations.

(2) No person shall be in an intoxicated condition in a public place.

(3) No person shall consume liquor in or about a motor vehicle. Minimum fine $275. First offence.

40. (4) No person shall knowingly sell, give or otherwise supply liquor to any person under the age of nineteen years or apparently under the age of nineteen years and in any prosecution under this subsection the provincial court judge or court may determine from the appearance of the person to whom the liquor was sold, given or otherwise supplied whether the person is apparently under that age. Minimum fine $500. First offence.

40. (5) Any person under the age of nineteen years who:
(a) has in his possession or consumes liquor; or
(b) falsely claims to be over that age in order to obtain liquor,
(c) is guilty of an offence.
Minimum fine $275. First offence. Anyone caught breaking any of the above liquor control act regulations will have their bracelet removed for the duration of the weekend.

2. (1) Every person who, without legal justification, whether conferred by an enactment or otherwise, or without the permission of the occupier or a person authorized by the occupier, the proof of which rests upon the person asserting justification or permission,

(a) Enters on premises that is a lawn, garden, orchard, commercial berry growing area, golf course or acreage managed for the production of agricultural crops;

(a.1) Enters on premises that is forest land;

(b) Enters on premises that is apparently a tree plantation area or a Christmas tree management area;

(c) Enters on premises that is enclosed in a manner that indicates the occupier's intention to keep persons off the premises or to keep animals on the premises;

(d) Dumps or deposits material of any kind or causes, suffers or permits material to be dumped or deposited on premises;

(e) Enters on premises where entry is prohibited by notice; or

(f) Engages in an activity which is prohibited on the premises by notice, is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of not less than $200 and not more than $2,000. There are also other charges like mischief (damage to property or interfering with lawful use and enjoyment of property) which are criminal and could result in probation, fine, or jail time.

With all those laws in mind, we also want you to please show respect for all attendees. In particular:

Offensive behaviour such as verbal abuse, intimidation, or harassment or sexual harassment will not be tolerated. Remember that all our attendees are here for similar reasons, and do not make assumptions about anyone's interests, skill level, or profession based on their appearance or background. There are many parties associated with the Cavendish Beach Music Festival, and these guidelines apply equally there. Please consume alcohol responsibly.

LAST OF:

Enjoy Yourself! You're at the 2019
